DÉJÀ AKSHITA

I'm an individual who functions on the basis of art and emotions.

From a young age, I've used many different forms of art to express myself: traditional, digital art, design, photography, music and poetry.

My head runs through a myriad of completely different thoughts each second, and I choose to do with them what I can do best; make art.

A good tattoo flows in harmony with the bends and bumps and key parts of the design placed in the right area will be clear and understandable and most importantly eye catching.

These key areas will be the flattest and most viewable from looking at the area straight on. The studio is designed to immortalize body flow through organic elements.

FLOW OF QI

Residential landscape design inspired by the Chinese concept of Qi. Structured to strike a balance among the five basic elements of Feng Shui. The project pays with the creation of meridians for the uninterrupted flow of qi throughout the landscape.

氣

A balance Yin & Yang + Shu Qi

cobbled pathways
↳ help create permeability
↳ natural stone = eco friendly

PLAYING WITH HEDGES
Firebush → for fencing
Sibonutiae shrubs (round topiary)
↳ for yin yang balance in front lawn → cozier

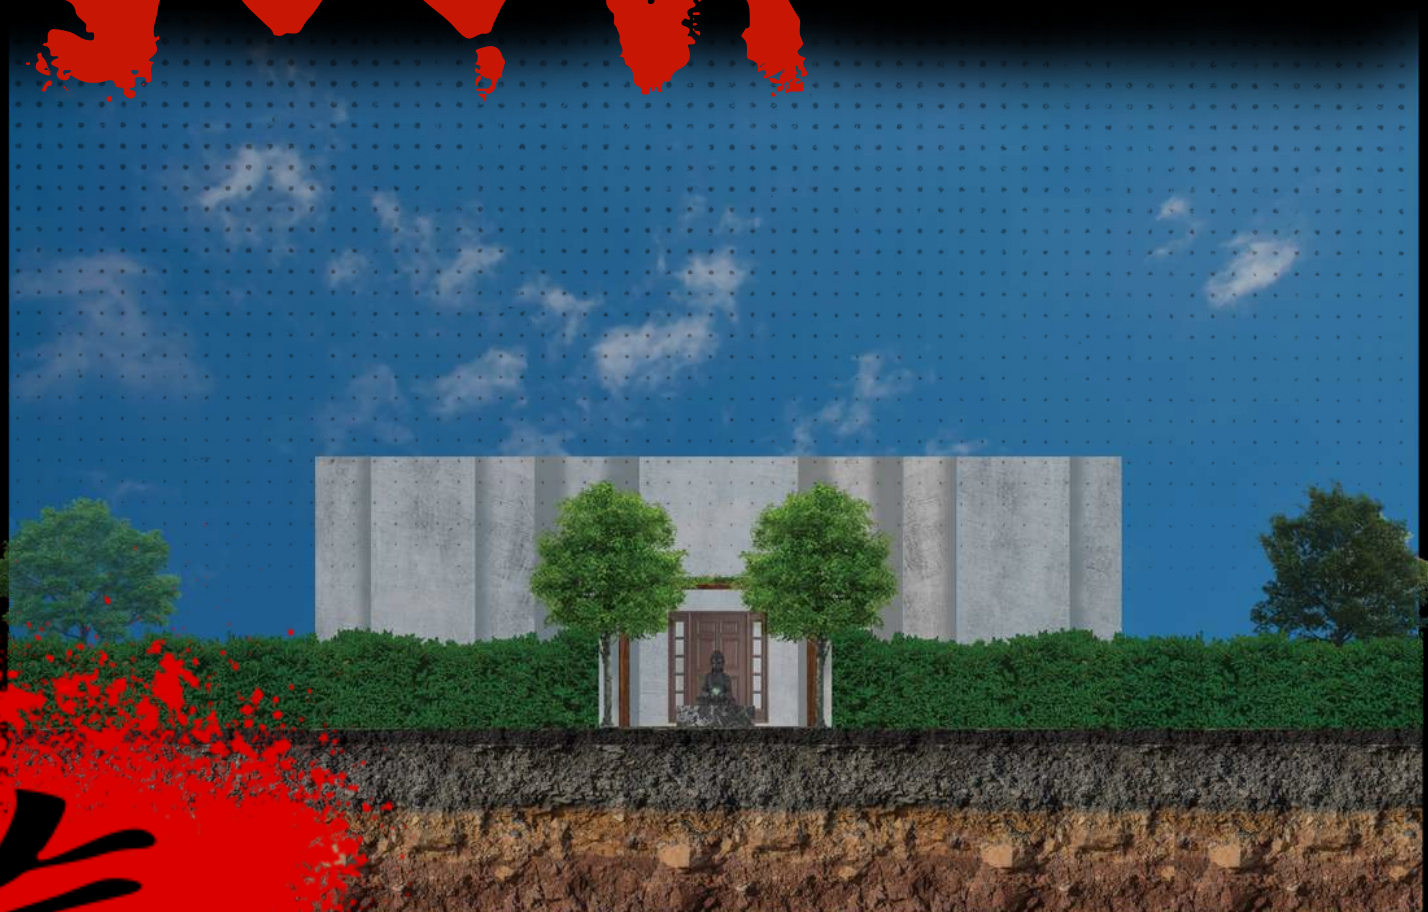

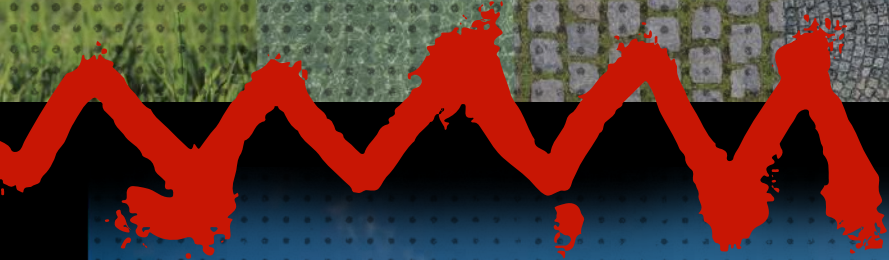

AND CONSEQUENTLY:
as a result of the pond → a myriad of fauna will be attracted

KOI
Symbolic in Feng Shui
↳ closely related to the philosophy of Yin & Yang.
↳ stand for love, strength, perseverance.

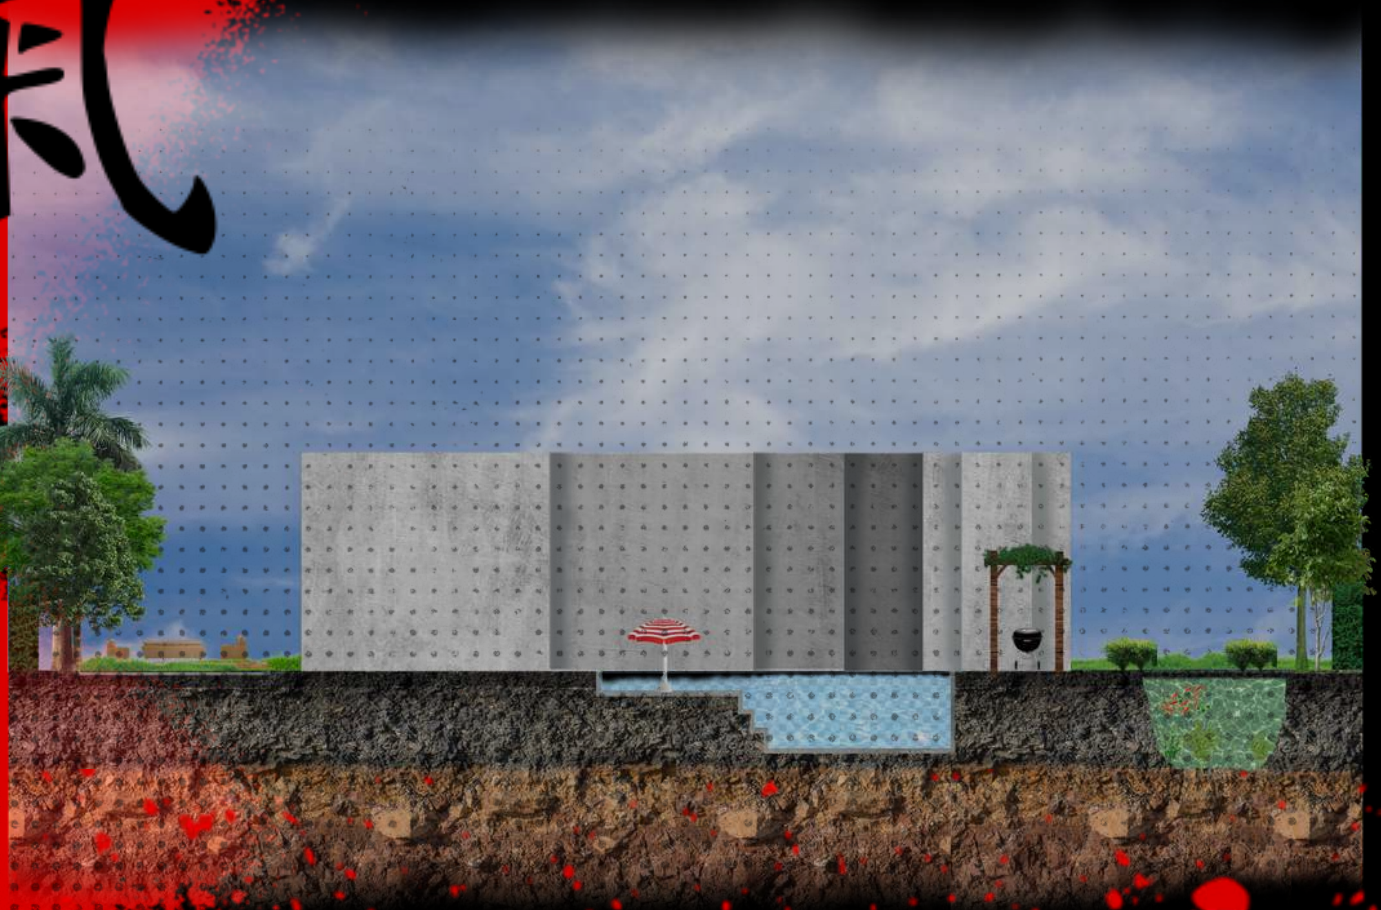

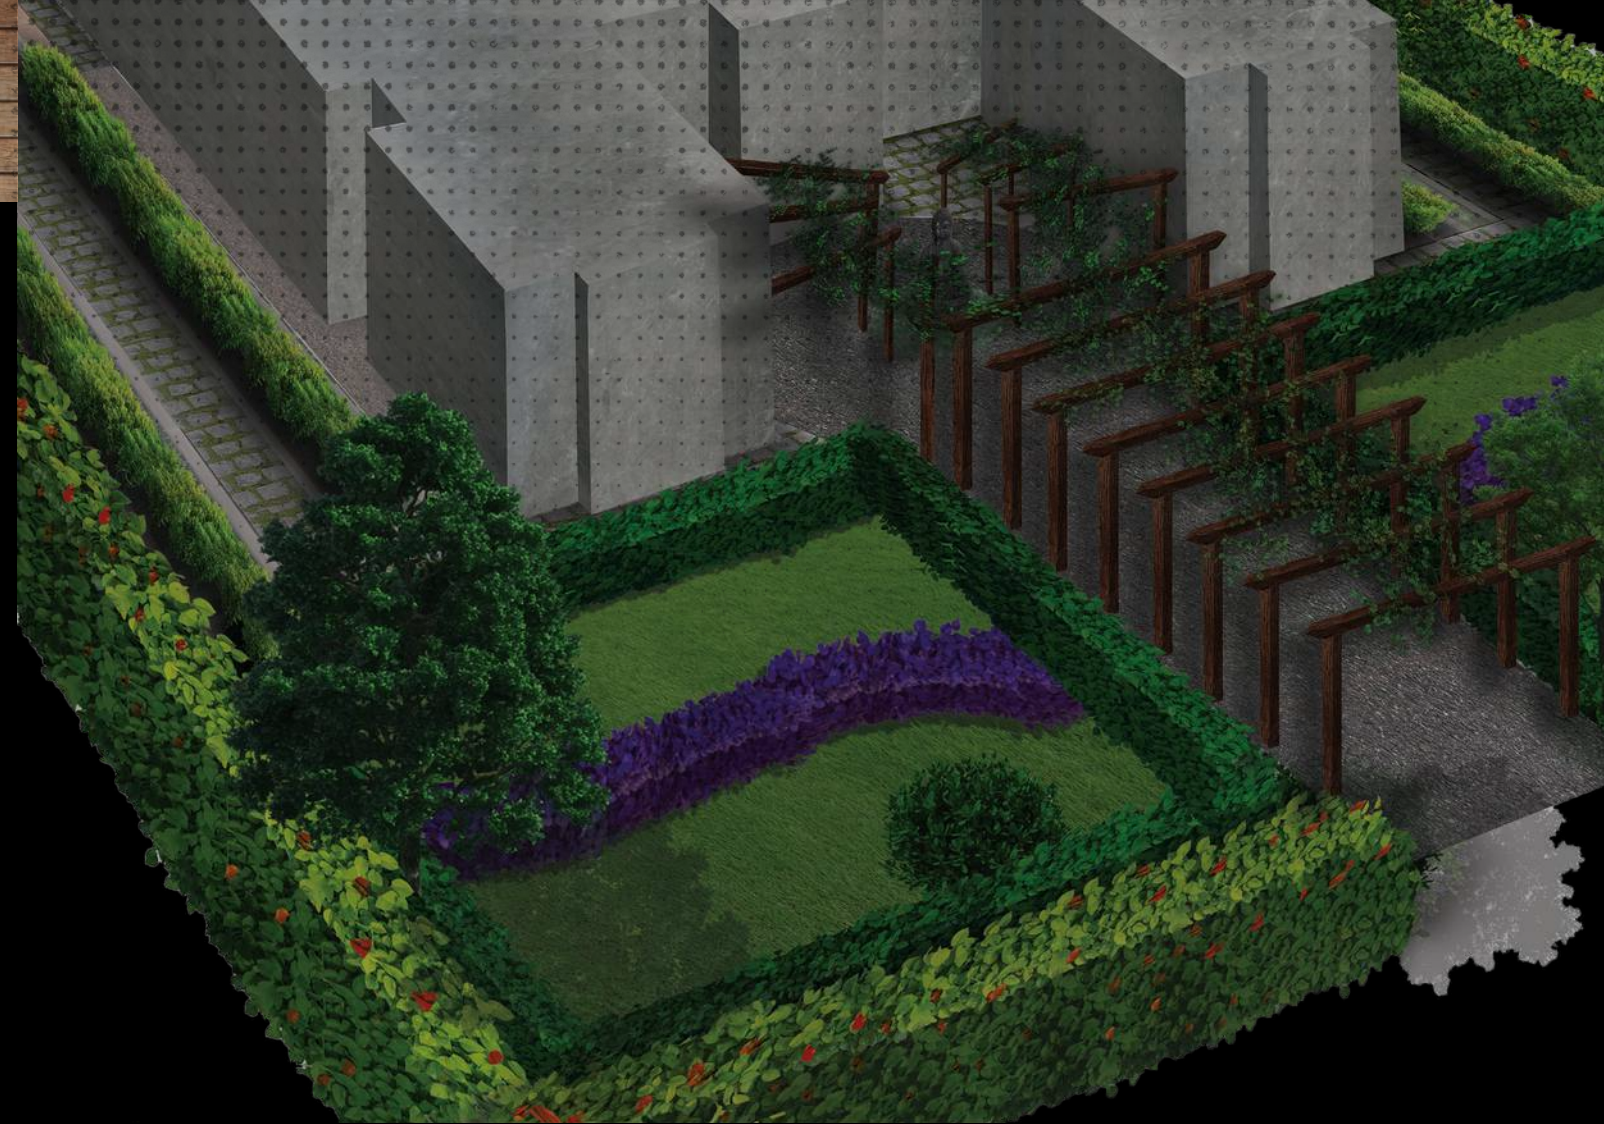

DRAGONFLIES
Waterbodies attract dragonflies & damselflies.
↳ symbols of "new beginnings" & prosperity.

Sculptures → integral in creating a calm, grounding atmosphere.

Having the spirit of a koi nearby is believed to attract good luck and fortune.

MEEDUSAS RECORDS

business card, desk calendar and pamphlet for a hypothetical, new york based record label which works to bring underrated artists to light.

Vision

As a record label that is fairly new to the industry, we aim to bring the most underrated artists to light. A portion of our profits go to The Western Society of Music to fund courses offered for free to gifted children who do not have the economic capacity to afford music lessons. We wish to help inculcate the importance and power of music as a medium of communication.

Mission

We are passionate about music and about people who have the ability to create, irrespective of where they hail from. We strive to bring the rave in the streets to the stage and fishing out talent from the most unlikely places.

The stories that are left unheard are given a platform here with us at Medusa. From the streets we bring to you, stories of the real struggle.

New albums with tracks that hit the Billboard Hot 100:

About

Music the universal language. It inspires us, moves us, thrills us, heals us and ultimately unites us all.

As a fairly new company, it's our responsibility to nurture music, and to foster creativity and self-expression. In a world that desperately needs to find more common ground, there is no better way to provide it, than through music.
